City of Riverside Human Relations Commission Awards Diversity Scholarships

Students from John W. North High School Sweep the 2014 Awards

RIVERSIDE, Calif. – The City of Riverside’s Human Relations Commission has announced the winners of its essay contest on diversity and how high school students experience diversity within the city.

Entries were scored by the Commission, which is charged with fostering mutual understanding and respect between people; encouraging education and outreach; and developing and promoting programs which work to eliminate prejudice and discrimination. Mayor Rusty Bailey also assisted in the judging.

Applicants were judged on academic achievement, ability and writing skills. The prizes include three college scholarships of $1,000, $750 and $500 for first, second and third place, respectively

The 2014 winners include:

First place: Sylvia Bi, John W. North High School

Second place: Kaylee Paul, John W. North High School

Third Place: Tatiana Su, John W. North High School
